

Intro — What Is This?

Monday Bags · ready-to-post captions

v1 — The explainer ("here's the thing")

Show up alone. We draw you a partner.

That's Monday Bags. No team to bring, no partner to find — walk in, put your name down, get drawn one at random. Two ringers can't stack and run the table. The person who's never thrown a bag might draw the best player in the room. Everybody's got a real shot, and everybody gets better.

Ten bucks to play. Clover adds $50. Winner takes the pot — second gets their buy-in back.

It's how our Wednesday darts night became an 8-year staple. Now it's Monday's turn.

v2 — The standing-night frame ("your Monday has a thing now")

Mondays just got a thing.

Monday Bags at Clover River West — real blind-draw cornhole, every Monday. Walk in solo, get drawn a random partner, play a double-elim bracket. Ten bucks in, Clover throws $50 on top, winner takes the pot. No team to organize. No wrong level. Just show up and find out.

Sibling to our 8-year Wednesday darts night. Monday's turn now.

v3 — The hook ("anybody can win")

Anybody can win. Even your first night.

Partners are drawn at random, so no two ringers can stack a team and run the table. The rookie might draw the room's best. The vet has to earn it carrying a stranger. That's the whole game — and it's why the room turns into a crew instead of a clique.

Ten bucks to play, Clover adds $50, winner takes the pot, second gets their money back.
