One-line taglines

- Show up alone. We draw you a partner.
- Anybody can win. Even your first night.
- The crew's already here.
- There's no wrong level.
- Walk in, get drawn, throw.
- Mondays just got a thing.
- Real rules. No gatekeeping.
- Nobody stays bad for long.
- Bring nothing but yourself — we'll handle the rest, including your partner.
- Now it's Monday's turn.

The lineage line

It's how our Wednesday darts night became an 8-year staple. Now it's Monday's turn.

The "what is it" line

Monday Bags is Clover's blind-draw cornhole night, every Monday. Walk in, put your name down, get drawn a random partner, play a real double-elim bracket. $10 to play, Clover adds $50, winner takes the pot — second gets their buy-in back. Newcomers carried, nobody stays bad. Every Monday, 7:30, sign up by 7, Clover River West.

The mechanic line

Partners are drawn at random and kept for the night, so no two ringers can stack a team — the rookie always has a shot, and the room levels up together.

The money line

Ten bucks to play. Clover adds $50. Winner takes the pot, second gets their buy-in back. ($1 4-Bagger Pot runs separately all night — carryover jackpot, the night's big moment.)
